

Winner takes all

BEST Multibank Site
For Foreign Exchange

Internet awards

★2001
euromoney.com

FXall has been selected as the
'Best Multibank Site for Foreign Exchange' by euromoney.com.

It's easy to see why. Our foreign exchange trading platform is leading the market with fast, automated prices combined with TRUE Straight Through Processing. And best of all, it's free!

The benefits live today include:

Real-Time Quotes, providing true market transparency in a variety of foreign exchange instruments.

FXall QuickTrade™, saving time and money by providing direct access to liquidity from the greatest number of fully integrated banks.

Internally deal with your regional treasury centres, net requirements and then offset the risk with one of FXall's fully integrated liquidity providers.

Audit Trail Reporting lets you prove you dealt on the best available price.

TRUE Straight Through Processing from the FXall STP Suite™ eliminates the need for matching transactions – and reduces the risks of keying errors.

Research from FXall's liquidity providers is only a click away. If you can't find what you are looking for, simply execute a structured search across all liquidity providers.

News and real-time market rates in other asset classes from Reuters and other market sources help you keep track of market happenings.

Help? How about round the clock support – in 13 languages!

As if all this isn't enough, the FXall service is free to buy-side participants.

There's never been a better time to join the winning team.
